

[institution name here]

has access to

Routledge Historical Resources: History of Economic Thought

Academic Editors: Gilbert Faccarello and Heinz D. Kurz

The collection includes:

- Material focusing on the period between 1700-1914
- More than 9000 chapters of Primary source materials, many available here in electronic format for the first time
- More than 2000 chapters of secondary source book content covering a wide range of interesting subjects
- 200 articles from Taylor & Francis journals
- 18 newly commissioned essays from experts in the field
- An introductory video to the subject and resource from academic editor, Heinz D. Kurz
- Enlightening introductions to the 8 key subject areas and 12 Currents of Thought

